Vocabulary

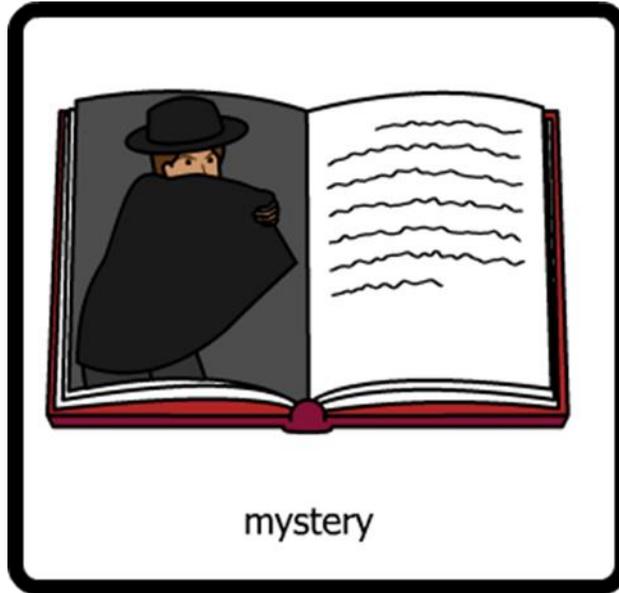

Step 1: Review important parts of a mystery story that authors need to include.

Mystery is a genre where the characters solve a crime or problem in the story.

Can you find any other examples of mysteries around the house?

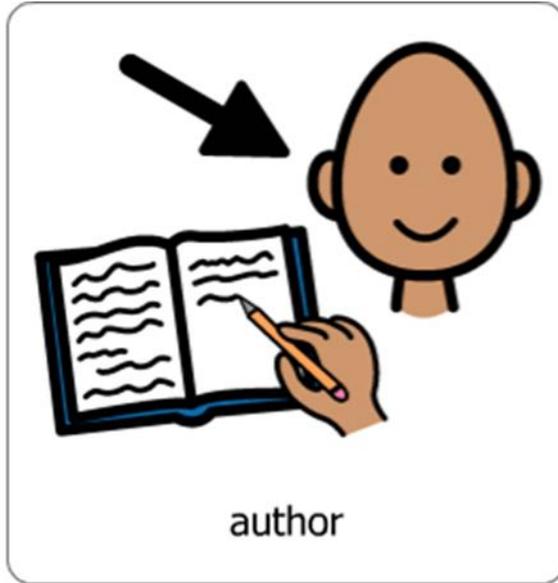

Scooby Doo is a famous mystery!

Song

The author of Scooby Doo is James Gelsey

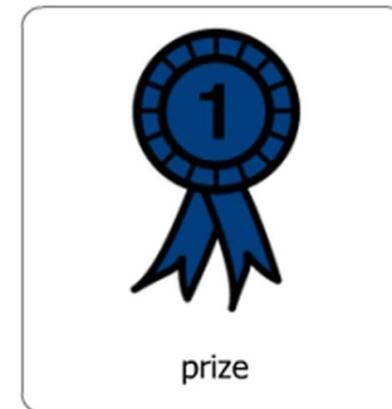

- Authors are people that write stories.

Step #2: Let's read the story then we will watch a video of Scooby doo to compare.

It was a dark and stormy day at school. The gang came to school and noticed all of their cool prizes were gone!

“Where are all of our cool prizes?” Asked Shaggy.

“Maybe a ghost took them!” Said Scooby-Doo.

“We have to find them!” said Fred

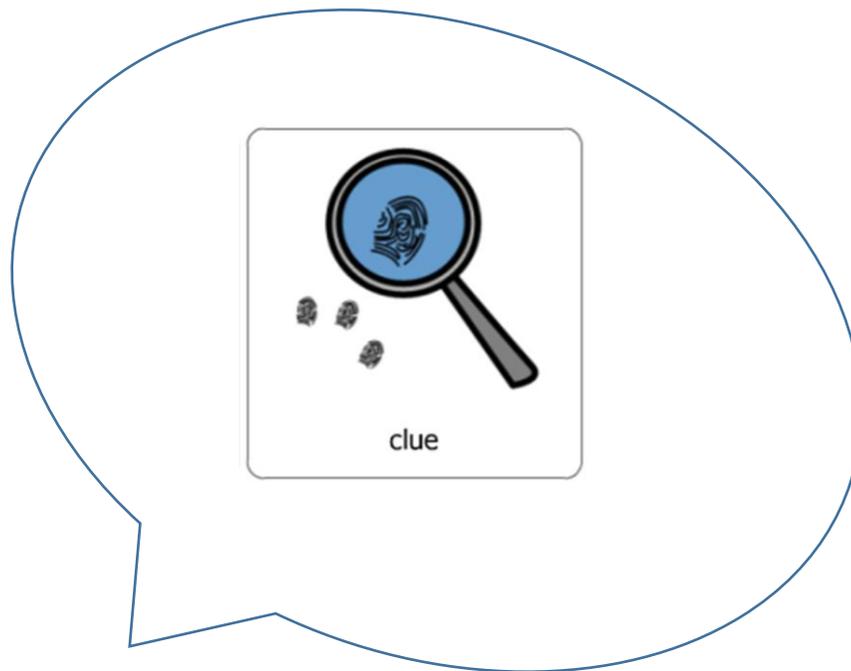

“Look there is a clue!” said Velma. The clue was taped on the front board.

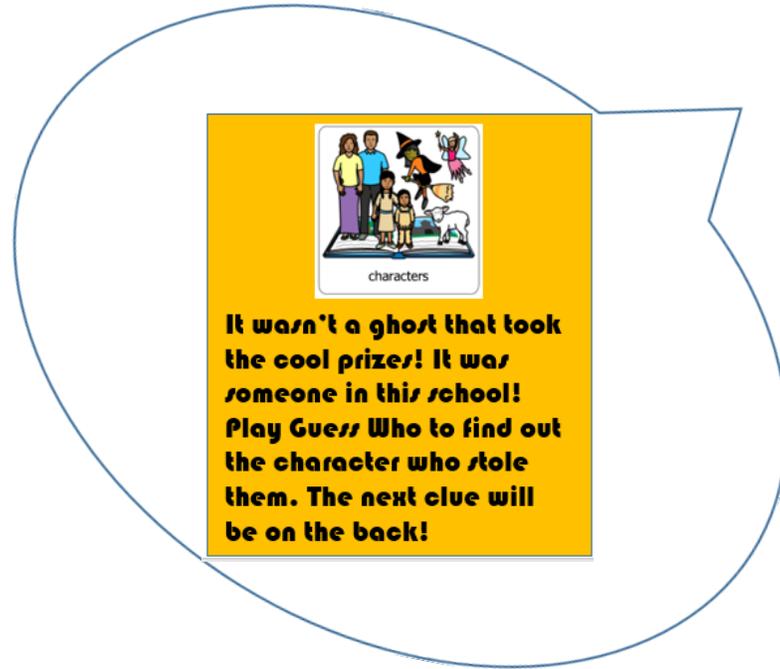

It wasn't a ghost that took the cool prizes! It was someone in this school! Play Guess Who to find out the character who stole them. The next clue will be on the back!

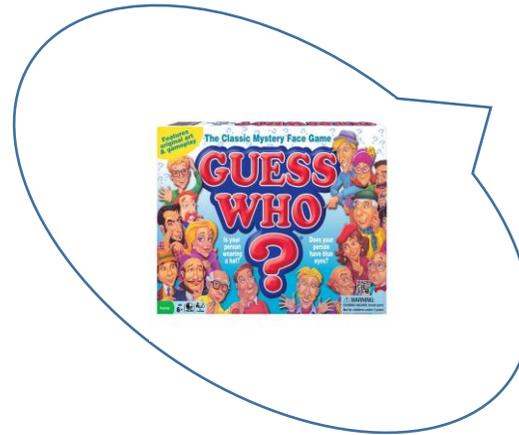

“Daphne, what does the clue say?” said Fred

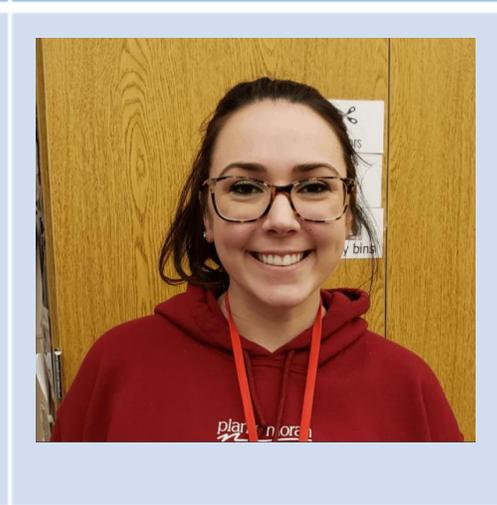

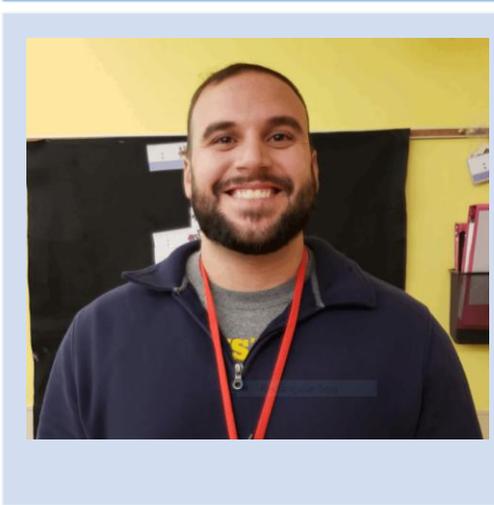

Daphne read the clue aloud. "It says, It wasn't a ghost that took the cool prizes. It was someone in this school. Play Guess Who to find out the character who stole them. The next clue will be on the back!"

Well I guess we need to play some Guess Who!
Shaggy said. "I rove games!" said Scooby-Doo.

Here are our suspects!

Miss Paula stole the prizes!!

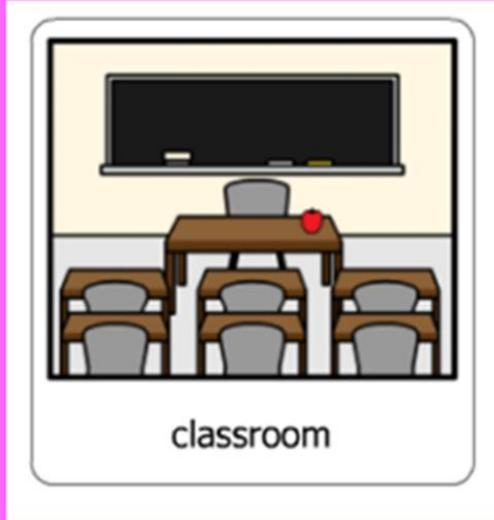

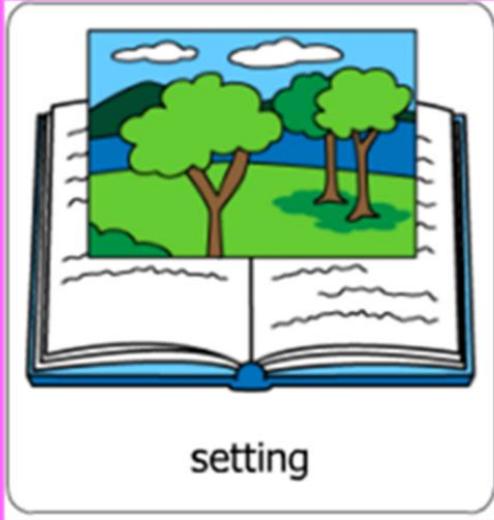

MS PAULA WAS THE THIEF! But what room did she put the prizes? Go on a scavenger hunt to find out and find the next clue.

“Miss Paula is the thief! But where did she put them!” Said Velma

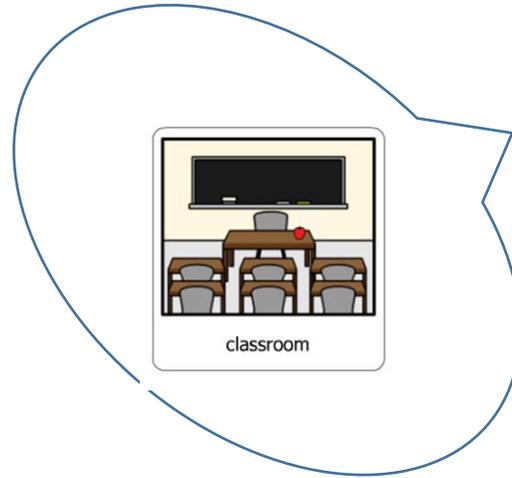

“Let’s spread out and look for it around the school!” said Fred.

PAULA PUT THE COOL PRIZES IN OUR CLASSROOM!

“It was in the classroom all along!” Shaggy said. “But where is the room?” Daphne asked

“Let’s compare the story to Scooby Doo Movie to figure out where the prizes are in the classroom.”
said Velma

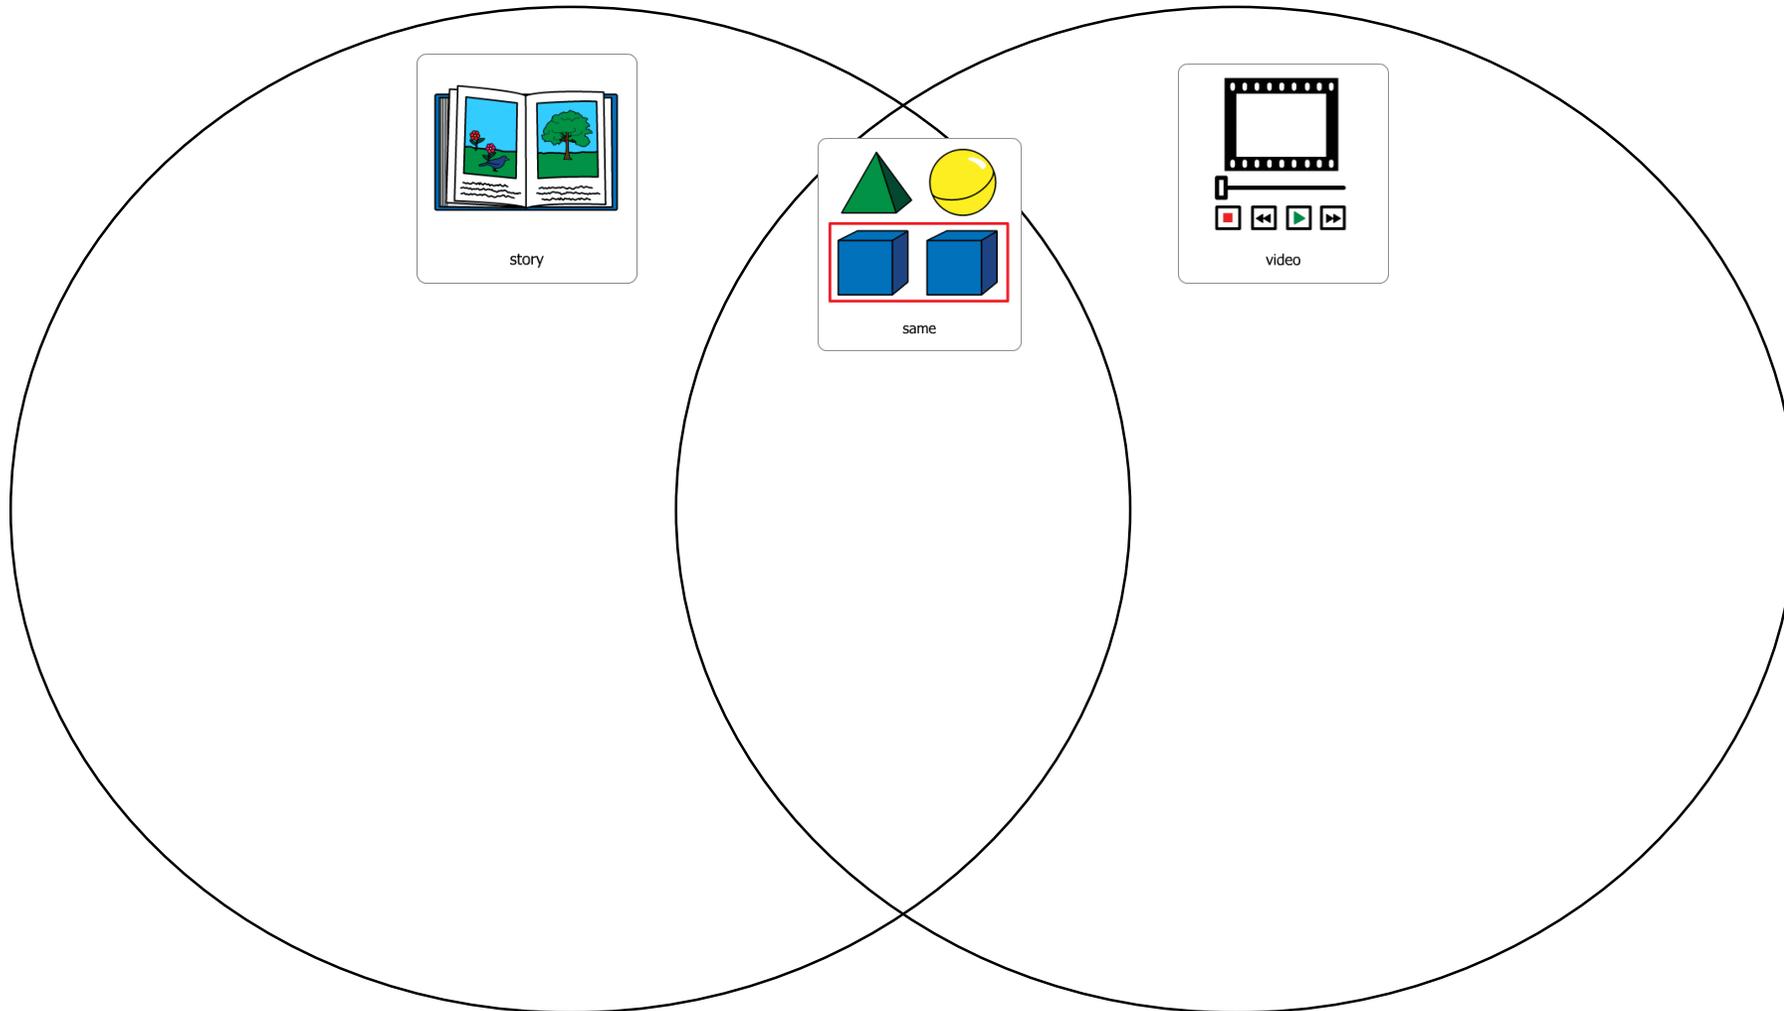

Step #3: Lets watch the Scooby Doo Trailer

Step #4: Activity: We will compare the story with the video.

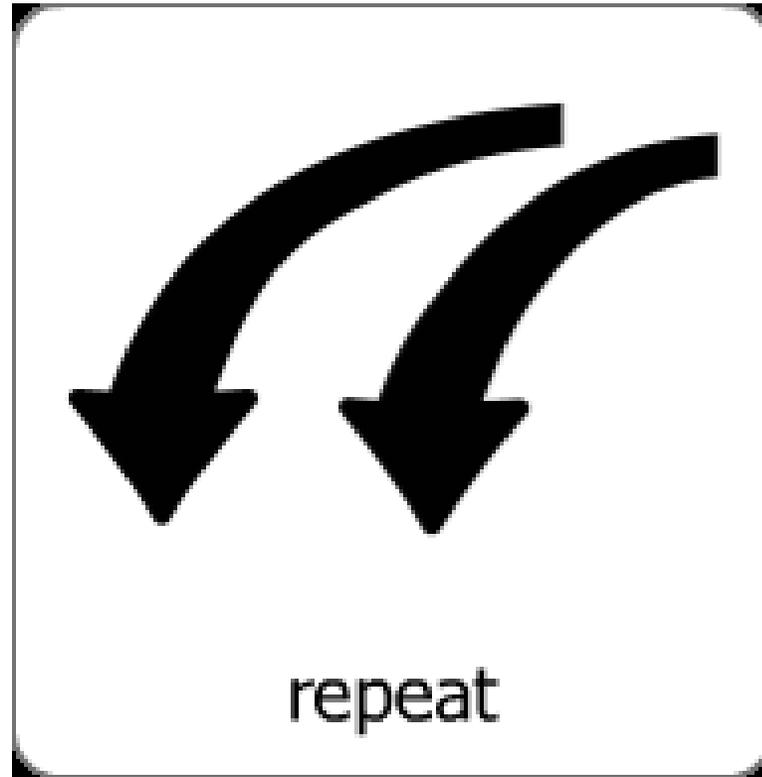

Pull the visuals from a sensory bin

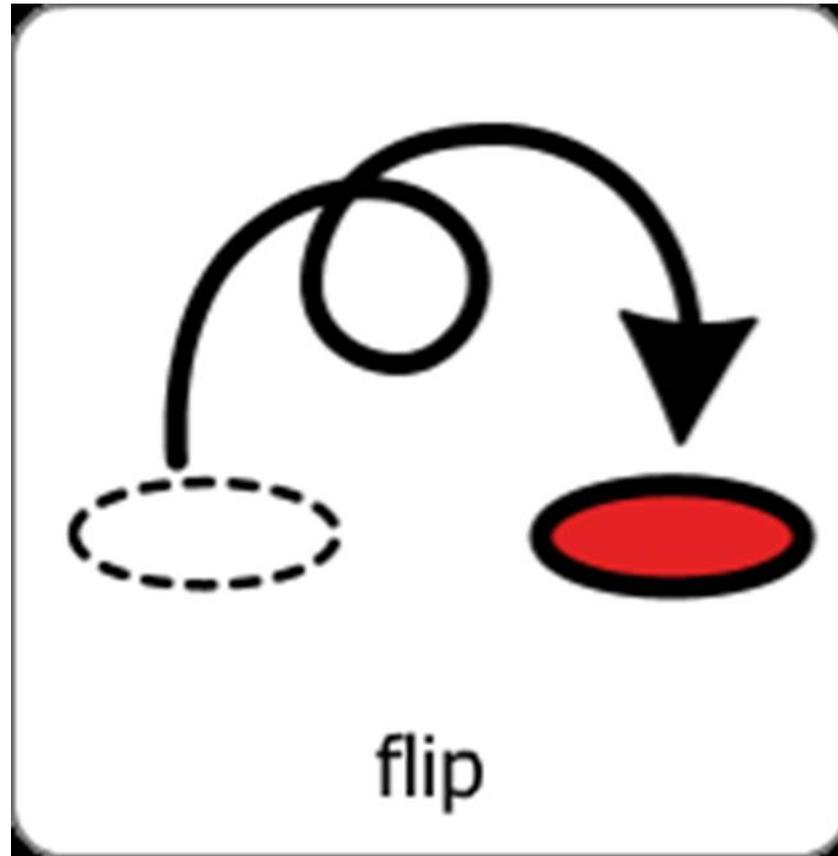

Take turns taking them out and placing them on the Venn Diagram.

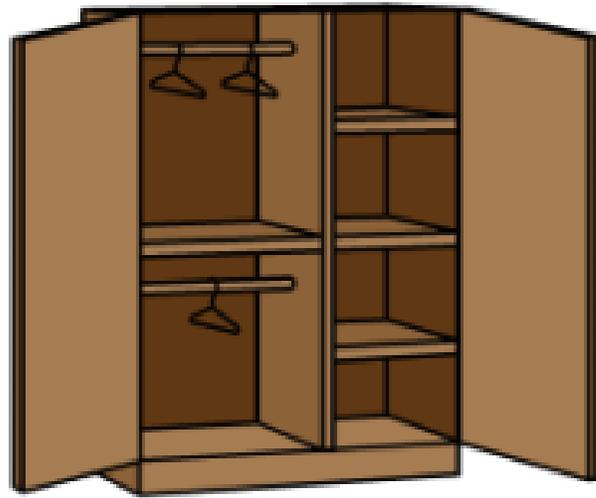

Repeat until you placed all the visuals on the Venn Diagram.

Once you have finished turn over the Venn Diagram to unlock the last clue!

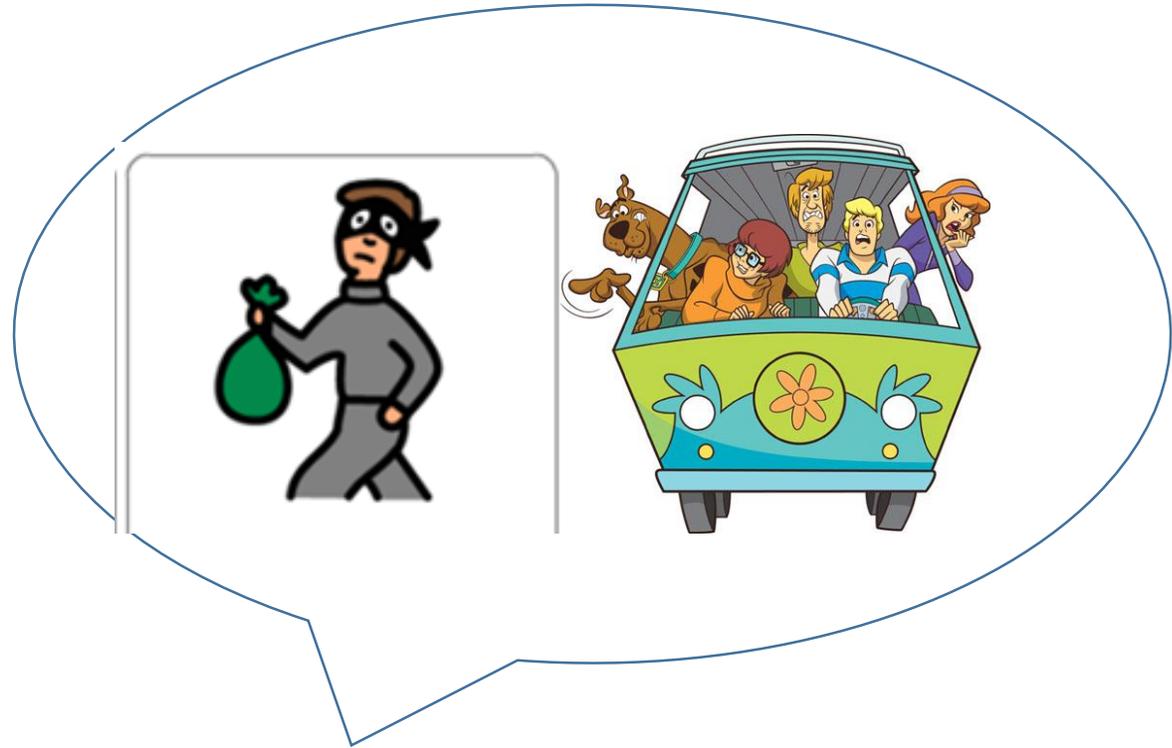

closet

You unlocked the next clue!
Miss Paula put your cool prizes in the closet! Go look!

We finally figured out the mystery of the stole prizes!

“And I would have gotten away with it, too, if it weren’t for you meddling kids!” Ms. Paula said!

Today we learned about comparing the Scooby doo story to the Scooby doo movie in order to unlock the last clue!
