

Daily Herald

Suburban Chicago's Information Source

Marklund Day School staff Hope Schmidt and Jen Riley enjoy getting framed with Chaquan during Halloween activities at the Marklund Wasmond Center in Elgin. (Courtesy of Marklund)

Submitted by Dawn Lassiter-Brueske

Updated 11/2/2023 11:36 PM

Marklund Day School staff bring the spirit of Halloween to the Marklund Wasmond Center in Elgin.

The Wasmond Center provides services to children and adults with profound

Daily Herald

Suburban Chicago's Information Source

education experience.

This therapeutic, sensory-driven Multi-Needs Program serves individuals ages 3-22 with medical, developmental, and physical disabilities.

The school is within the Marklund Wasmond Center residential/therapeutic facility. Teachers and paraprofessionals in the two classrooms provide specialized and individualized education in our MultiNeeds program, for students with profound developmental disabilities and multiple health care needs.

Learn more at www.marklund.org/elgin-campus/ (<https://www.marklund.org/elgin-campus/>)

Copyright © 2023 Paddock Publications, Inc., P.O. Box 280, Arlington Heights, IL 60006
Paddock Publications, Inc. is an Employee-Owned Company